Dear Harold,

Enclosed are a few copies of the Realist, which is finally out aftera several month delay.

I'm sorry that I haven't yet completed indexing the CIA file, but I'm writing another article,(this one dealing with the way in which Nixon et al, intimidated, coerced, and courted the media and manipulated headlines in order that McGovern would be forced to look like a clown, McGovern would be forced off page one, and Nixon would be portrayed as a dignified statesmen), and due to the timely nature of the subject matter I've had to temporarily drop the index. At any rate, I'm currently unemployed and without access to a xerox machine, so I couldn't make copies of the index even if it were completed. Hopefully it will be completed shortly, and I will have the means to duplicate it.

I hope all is well with you and Lil.

Best,

Jerry
